OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The Odd Fellows' Block is being repainted. Ground was broken yesterday for a skating rink on Virginia avenue, near South street.

Thomas Cashin, a deserter from the regular army, was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Clark.

Robert Clifford, Richard Meyer and James Smith were brought down from Fort Wayne yesterday evening and lodged in jail on charges of violating the revenue laws.

Walter Newman, who was so badly injured recently by falling on a post in front of his home on South Mississippi street, at which time the flesh and part of the face bones were taken away, is recovering.

On Saturday afternoon Ed Goodwin, a thirteen-year-old boy, residing at Traders' Point, drank a large quantity of whisky out of a jug which he found in a farmer's wagon. The boy became violently sick, and then unconscious, remaining so until he died.

Matinee Musical.

The ladies of the Matinee Musicals last evening gave their regular monthly entertainment at Plymouth Church. The audience was made up of members and friends of the society and included many of our best musical people. The programme was selected gave evidence of the hard study and good taste of the talented ladies who have, by personal efforts, placed the organization upon its present high footing. A special feature was the soprano solo by Mrs. Frank Levering, accompanied by Professor Bahr, with violin obligato finely executed by Mr. M. H. Spades. This number, as well as a soprano solo by Miss Thompson, was heartily applauded. The other participants were Misses Spann, Baggs, Hunter, Stowell, Morriam, Bamberger, Russell, Meddames, George Branham, Henry Schurman and Mr. Levi.

AMUSEMENTS.

AMY GORDON OPERA AT ENGLISH'S.

A big house greeted the Amy Gordon Opera Company at English's last night. Owing to a cold contracted coming from St. Paul here Miss Gordon was unable to appear in "Fra Diavolo," which requires full control of the vocal organs, so "Fatinilla" was produced instead. As "Fatinilla" she scored a success, taking the disadvantage she labored under into consideration. Mr. Morgan, in his original part of "Julian," the inquisitive and wide-awake reporter, appeared to good advantage. Mr. Mack Charles, as the "Fasha," made a good impression. The rest of the support were equal to any seen here in connection with comic opera here before. The costumes and scenic effects are first-class. On the Danube, the Russian encampment, the Harem and the summer palace, the four principle sets, were fine stage pictures and showed up well. Dr. Runnels, who is treating Miss Gordon, thinks by this evening that she will be in fit condition to sing her operas advertised in her usual competent manner. To-night "Girofle Girofle" will be produced. This opera is one of Leococ's most popular productions. Wednesday matinee "Fra Diavolo" will be put on. Remember the low prices, 15, 25 and 35 cents for all week.

THE DIME MUSEUM.

This popular amusement resort opened with a boom yesterday afternoon, and last night there was a perfect crush, the attendance was so large. The show given this week is one of the best of the season, and consists in part of Tanber's wonderful Columbus clock, the greatest piece of automatic mechanism ever invented; Cooke's interesting mechanical marvels; Bernstein's animated wax-works—great; Millie Owens, who has the longest head of hair of any woman living; the astonishing spirit writer, Colonel Cooper, the English giant, and many other features too numerous to name.

THE HYERS SISTERS.

The original Hyers Sisters' Comedy Company made their first appearance at Lyra Hall last night, before a fair sized audience. In the musical comedy, "The Blackville Twins," the piece was well received, the comedian, Basil Robinson, making a great hit. Miss Madah Hyers received several encores for her beautiful rendition of a song from "Linda," while Mary C. Hyers was likewise complimented for her recitation, "The Wreck." Same bill all week.

Carrie Coleman vs. Herman Coleman. Damages. Under advisement.

Kate Mitchell vs. Elwood Mitchell et al. Suit for maintenance. Dismissed.

Harrison's Bank.

Receiver Lamb of Harrison's Bank makes the statement that it will require $25,000 for a 5 per cent. dividend. All of the available property belonging to the bank was mortgaged and very little will be collected from the wreck. The only payment under the mortgage was $8,000, and in the Federal Court a suit is now pending for principal and interest amounting to $77,000. The Title Works was covered by the Portsmouth Savings Bank's mortgage of $80,000; the Parker block, valued at $30,000; Washington street business room, appraised at $7,000; residence, corner of New York and Illinois street, $4,000; Stoll's farm at $6,000. The Parker block, which is covered by a second mortgage, will be sold shortly. The sale of the Title Works will take place May 20.

The Methodist Ministers.

The Methodist ministers at their meeting yesterday morning discussed the subject: "Who is Responsible for the Dangerous Classes in Society?" A very interesting paper was read by Rev. E. W. S. Hammond, in which he maintained that the most dangerous classes in society were the illiterate and intemperate. Rev. T. A. Goodwin next addressed the meeting on "The Crisis of Intemperance," and the subject was generally discussed, after which the meeting adjourned until next Monday, when Dr. Marine will read a paper on "The Outlook for the Speedy Evangelization of the World."

A Hebrew in Trouble.

Casper Barrett, a Jew residing at 224 South East street, was arrested last night by Patrolmen Page and Dawson for the alleged theft of $179 worth of cylinders, shafts and pulleys, from the Northwestern Manufacturing Company. The property was taken from the company's store house on North Tennessee street, on Saturday afternoon, and laid to a junk dealer named Barnstein, whose place of business is situated on Delaware street near Virginia avenue. Barrett claims that he purchased the property. He will be given a hearing in the Mayor's Court this morning.

Piano Recital.

Mrs. Flora Hunter, assisted by her pupil, Miss Mamie Stowell, gave a piano recital at Baldwin's music rooms yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of invited friends. Each number on the programme was well received, a ballad selection from Chopin's popular compositions meeting with a well-deserved encore. Two compositions, each for two pianos, were given at the last of the programme, in which Miss Stowell showed a remarkable proficiency as a student. Mrs. Hunter is to be congratulated upon the success of the entire affair.

Cleaning Up.

Ever since the general break up the streets and gutters have been in a terrible state. The sidewalks have been covered with ashes and filth which accumulated during the weary winter months, and when the thaw came mountains of manure that had collected about the various hack and express wagon stands sent forth a fearful stench. The work of cleaning up, however, began yesterday. The Street Commissioner had a large force of men at work on all of the principal streets, and it is quite probable that the city will present a very respectable appearance within the next few days.

Young People's C. T. U.

The Young People's Christian Temperance Union will meet this evening (Tuesday) at the W. C. T. U. Rooms, No. 76 North Pennsylvania street. The programme includes an address by Rev. Rondthaler, solo by Mrs. Walker, and recitation by Miss Turpen. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested.
